The children of room four of the Hayti Public School spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. W. J. Morris. At about six o'clock the guests began to arrive. The hostess prepared two prizes for contestants, one in spelling and one in arithmetic, being won by Artie Gettings and Joseph Kohn respectively. After the contest they were invited into the dining room and fruits, nuts and candy were served. All departed, having greatly enjoyed themselves.—Earl Raybuck.

Bob Downing visited home-folks Sunday.

Every noon train going from here to Caruthersville takes several people who are taking treatment with DR. BURGESS the Specialist at that place. DR. BURGESS recently purchased his office property from O. W. Grady and has fitted up a permanent INSTITUTE for the special treatment of CHRONIC diseases. During the past 13 months DR. BURGESS has succeeded in curing scores of people after their cases had resisted the best efforts of a number of physicians, and the people of Hayti and vicinity are becoming familiar with the good work that is being done at the INSTITUTE in relief of pain and suffering.
